

Slingin' Hash

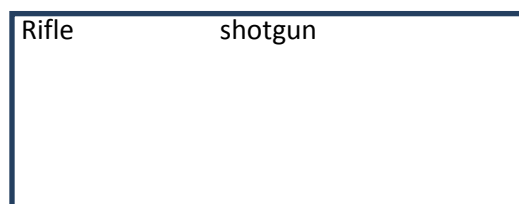

Ol' Gringo had been slaving over hot coals all day. There was no shortage of customers on this day and they were mighty grumbly and demanding. Gringo's temper had gotten as hot as the coals he was cookin' over when KA-BOOM he just exploded like his fuse was in the fire. "You danged cowboys have had the last meal I'll cook" Ben yelled "the next thing I'll fry fer ya will be your stinkin hides!" With that he grabbed his Greener from the corner and blasted away, clearing the house. Seeing that all the cowboys were gone Gringo sat down, took a deep breath put his feet up and had himself a drink. And with a grin he mumbled "That'll show 'em!"
