

WANTED

STAGE WRITERS

The stages are rolling out and everyone is invited to join in and lend a hand. Stage writing is fun and easy. Try it and you'll see. If you have a scenario you would like to shoot just jot it down and send it to me at WoodieB@live.com (or hand deliver it) and I'll take it from there. Questions? Just shoot me an e-mail and I'll get you an answer. Here are a few guidelines to get you started.

Stages need to be submitted at least 2 weeks before the match so that they may be reviewed and posted online for shooters to preview.

You do not have to write a story (if you do keep it as short as possible) just come up with a line to start the stage.

Each stage should have about 24 rounds.

Do not end with the rifle as the timer sometimes does not record the report of lighter loads.

Remember that we have left handed shooters and folk of different sizes and capabilities. Be fair to all.

So get creative and let's have some fun.

Thanks Pard, see ya on th' trail, Woodie B
